

Joseph J. Albanese Inc. Promotes Ramiro Contreras, Ismael Sandoval and Dino Calabrese to Vice President Positions

SANTA CLARA, Calif., June 3, 2024 — Joseph J. Albanese Inc., a leading concrete and construction contractor based in Northern Calif., today announced that it has promoted Ramiro Contreras, Ismael Sandoval and Dino Calabrese to Vice President positions.

“We are very proud to promote Ramiro, Ismael and Dino to Vice President roles,” said Phillip J. Albanese, CEO of Joseph J. Albanese Inc. “These leaders reinforce our commitment to our people, opportunity creation, and product. They each started their careers in the craft and have developed into organizational leaders who will remain focused on our teams and product as self-performing contractors.”

Contreras has been named Vice President of Operations and will be responsible for operational strategy and overseeing the team of foremen and superintendents. Starting as a laborer with Joseph J. Albanese Inc. in 2001 and growing ever since, Contreras was most recently General Superintendent of Concrete and Operations. His commitment to JJA’s core values has been evident through his recent key initiatives centered on the team’s development and safety.

Sandoval has been named Vice President of Operations and will be responsible for operational strategy and overseeing the team of foremen and superintendents. Starting as a laborer with Joseph J. Albanese Inc. in 2001, he was most recently the General Superintendent of Site Concrete and Operations, overseeing all phases of multimillion-dollar construction projects for public and private-sector clients. His experience includes all aspects of construction, and his leadership has been evident in developing and implementing safety programs as well as operational efficiency practices that continue to push forward the company’s operations.

Calabrese has been named Vice President of Equipment and Logistics and will be responsible for overseeing the company's equipment shop, warehouse, and dispatch operations. Calabrese was formerly Director of Equipment and Logistics. He started with the company in 1999 as a truck driver. Today, he is responsible for the company's fleet of more than 500 pieces of equipment and continues to align the inter-company logistics teams to ensure the company's teams are properly equipped for our projects.

"Opportunity creation for our team and stakeholders is at the core of what Joseph J. Albanese Inc. has always been, and Ramiro, Ismael, and Dino are great examples of this," added Albanese. "I am excited to see how their leadership will continue to push our team, and industry, forward."
