

Joseph J. Albanese, Inc. Promotes Ricardo Rivera to Lead Estimator

SANTA CLARA, Calif., March 8, 2022 — Joseph J. Albanese, Inc. today announced the promotion of Ricardo Rivera to lead estimator. Ricardo has been with the company since 2007. This is his fourth promotion.

“We are pleased to promote Ricardo Rivera to the position of lead estimator. In his 14 years with the company, Ricardo has demonstrated an unwavering dedication to our clients and our team,” said Phillip Albanese, president & CEO at Joseph J. Albanese, Inc.

In keeping with the company’s promise to promote from within, Rivera has been promoted four times in the 14 years he’s been with the company. He started as a summer intern in 2007 and worked for the company part-time while he was a student. Upon his graduation, he was promoted to project engineer. He has been working in the Estimating Department since 2011 as an estimator, senior estimator and now as the lead estimator for concrete.

“I am honored to have been a part of the company during its stellar growth over the past 14 years and look forward to supporting its continued expansion,” Rivera said. “I am excited for my new role working with our very capable estimating team.”

In his new role, Rivera is responsible for overseeing estimates for concrete work, managing a team of estimators and working closely with clients and his team to coordinate scheduling and ensure accuracy.
