

Joseph J. Albanese, Inc. Promotes Alexis Susnow to Project Executive

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Feb. 8, 2022 — Joseph J. Albanese, Inc. today announced the promotion of Alexis Susnow to project executive. Susnow has been with the company since 2013. This is her fourth promotion.

“Throughout her eight years with the company, Alexis Susnow has shown exceptional commitment to our clients and team. A problem solver with an amazing ‘can do’ attitude, Alexis is dedicated to getting the job done safely and on time,” said Phillip Albanese, president & CEO at Joseph J. Albanese, Inc.

In keeping with the company’s promise to promote from within, Susnow has been promoted four times, holding positions as project engineer, senior project engineer, project manager, senior project manager and now her current position as project executive. Susnow is the first woman in the company’s history to hold this senior-level project management position.

“Joseph J. Albanese, Inc. is a champion of women in construction, empowering us to succeed by providing the opportunity to grow, learn and apply skills in a real-world environment,” Susnow said. “I am very proud to be the first female project executive at the company.”
