

Joseph J. Albanese Inc. Announces the Acquisition of Starch Concrete

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Aug. 4, 2025 —Joseph J. Albanese Inc., a leading self-perform contractor, today announced the acquisition of Starch Concrete, a company recognized for its structural concrete expertise across Northern California and Nevada. This strategic acquisition strengthens Joseph J. Albanese Inc.'s capabilities and enhances its ability to serve clients across both regions with expanded resources and specialized expertise.

“With the acquisition of Starch Concrete, we are strengthening our presence in the Western United States by expanding our operational footprint into the Northern California and Nevada Markets, two of the fastest-growing regions for construction and development in the Western United States,” said Phillip J. Albanese, CEO of Joseph J. Albanese Inc.

“The Starch Concrete team has built a business rooted in trust and craftsmanship, and we’re proud to continue that legacy under the Joseph J. Albanese banner,” Albanese added. “This acquisition is not just a business transaction; it is a thoughtful partnership built on shared values, complementary strengths and a bold vision for the future of construction in the Western United States.”

Starch’s team, led by its founder and CEO Jim Mann, will continue to operate Starch Concrete, a Joseph J. Albanese Company. Albanese admires the Starch team and its approach to construction, stating, “What the Starch team has accomplished since their start in 2016 is amazing, and we can’t wait to have that energy integrated into the Albanese Family.”

“We are extremely pleased to join the Joseph J. Albanese family and unite with its legacy of creating opportunities for its team and providing a high-quality product for its clients,” Mann said. “This acquisition brings together highly complementary capabilities for more innovation, more capacity and more value for our clients.”

In 2023, Joseph J. Albanese Inc. expanded to Montana with its acquisition of Allied Concrete of Bozeman and to Idaho and Utah with the opening of its Mountain West office in Boise, Idaho.

A prime concrete contractor and sub-contractor, Joseph J. Albanese Inc. is known for its award-winning concrete and construction work. It delivers multi-scope capabilities, including a wide variety of concrete services, demolition, excavation, grading, paving and public works construction throughout Northern California, Idaho and Montana.

The company was recently recognized as a winner of the 2025 Bay Area Best Places to Work, an annual awards program presented by the San Francisco Business Times and the Silicon Valley Business Journal. This is the seventh consecutive year the company has won this award.

Joseph J. Albanese Inc. is currently hiring for estimating, craft labor, project management and apprentice positions. Interested applicants can apply at <https://www.jjalbanese.com/jobsopportunities>.
